Designed by J&D

La colección Menfis se presenta como un producto atemporal pero al mismo tiempo ligado a las más actuales tendencias del diseño. Su fuerza principal se radica en el confort, de ahí el gran número de cojines que aporta, los cuales, permiten jugar con la profundidad de sentada del mismo.

El programa permite numerosas combinaciones a fin de poder ser adaptado a múltiples espacios. Partiendo de cuatro medidas básicas se pueden conseguir magníficas composiciones de sofás o rinconeros.

The Menfis collection is presented as a timeless product but at the same time linked to the most current design trends. Its main strength lies in comfort, hence the large number of cushions, allowing us to appreciate the seating depth. The collection permits numerous combinations making it adaptable to multiple spaces. Starting from four basic steps, it is possible to obtain magnificent compositions of sofas and corner units.
